a. Accept the basic skills recommendation with the change that the Survey of Collection and Processing be retitled The Intelligence Process.

b. Accept the mind expanding program recommendations with the following changes or observations.

(1) Survey of Analytic Methods be retitled Analytic Methods

(2) Intelligence and National Policy is potentially a difficult course to organize and staff. It will not be possible to offer this course in the very near future.

c. Since OTR already has an approved Intelligence Studies Program, we will take no action on the Advanced Seminars Program except to include some of its ideas and topics into the Studies program.

d. The recommendation regarding organization and management falls outside the purview of the study as originally proposed, however, OTR is grateful for the ideas of the [REDACTED] and Cunningham and will hold such ideas in reserve for implementation in the future as conditions permit.
